REVĪVŌ'S RETREAT PROGRAM EXAMPLE

Once a booking is confirmed, our team will get in touch to share a pre-arrival questionnaire which will provide our team with a thorough idea of your current health and what exactly you want to achieve during your stay. There is also an option to have a pre-arrival wellness consultation call if needed. The next step is for the REVĪVŌ experts to design your inclusions and full schedule (treatments, meals, movement classes, and rituals).

During your arrival consultation, your schedule will be explained to you in detail and any additional changes can be reviewed and implemented as part of your wellness journey. There is no one-size-fits-all approach so we do provide flexibility should changes need to be made once in-house. Upon confirmation, your schedule will be inserted into your personal 'take-home' wellness journal and provided to you post consultation.
